

SOUTH LANARKSHIRE HORSE AND PONY ACCESS GROUP (Founded November 1994- Affiliated to the British Horse Society)

The aims of South Lanarkshire Horse and Pony Access Group (SLHPAG) include:

- The protection, maintenance, improvement and where possible the creation of safe and enjoyable routes for everyone who wants to ride or drive horses or ponies in South Lanarkshire;
- Ensuring that the needs of the horse and rider are considered in any local authority plans, approval for new roads, housing or other developments, country parks and recreational provision;
- Working and consulting with the British Horse Society, South Lanarkshire Council as well as farming, conservation, access and leisure organisations and any other national, regional or local bodies to achieve our aims;
- Encouraging all riders and drivers to be safe and considerate of other users;
- Holding social and educational events for members, including a programme of rides throughout the year.
